House League: The real battle begins tonight!!

After a fun get-together to meet their teams and play a little goofy tennis last week, House Leaguers will begin their real battles tonight (Tuesday, May 6)!

Play will begin at 7 p.m. If you're not part of this event, come on out to the hill and cheer on your fellow DTCers!

We'll keep tabs on the standings throughout the season.

Social Tennis takes to the courts this Saturday evening

Social Tennis will be back on court this Saturday evening (May 11), beginning at 6 p.m.

Those who registered have first dibs, but if there are slots to fill, we will send out an e-mail mid-week for others who may want to join in.

Social Tennis runs until 9 p.m., followed by more socializing at a neighbourhood bar or restaurant. The venue for this week is still being decided!

Our head pro, Brian Ahlberg, offers sage weekly advice for DTCers:

Being consistent in tennis at any level is very important.

This is especially true for club-level players because most points will end with a player making an error, as opposed to hitting a winner.

By keeping more balls in play, you will give your opponent more chances to miss. So try to hit more safe balls up the middle of the court and wait for your opponent to make the mistake!

This playing strategy might also force you to run a little more, so be prepared for some physical exertion!
